Neon Noir

Late-night Vegas strip in your pocket. Dark glass, a glowing table edge and one hot gradient for the button that matters. Built for playing in bed with the lights off.

TYPE

- Unbounded (wide, geometric) for totals and the big buttons
- JetBrains Mono for chips, timers and stakes
- Space Grotesk for names and hints

WHAT CHANGES

- The other four players shrink to a one-line avatar strip in turn order: a ring shows stand / bust / waiting, and you sit in the middle of it
- That frees the middle of the screen. Your cards are 104 wide, about 1.6× today's 66
- Your total sits inside a timer ring that drains as your 14 seconds run out
- A floating glass dock holds the buttons. HIT is the only filled button on screen
- A "BEST" tag marks the coach's suggestion without a text card
