Paper & Ink

A light, editorial table with no felt. It reads like a well-set scorecard: big serif numbers, hairline rules, black ink and one red. Calm, very legible in daylight, and far from the usual green-felt look.

TYPE

- Fraunces, a high-contrast serif, for the dealer's card and your total at 90–100pt
- Inter Tight for labels, names and buttons

WHAT CHANGES

- The four other seats become a five-row scoreboard in turn order. Your row is inked black, so you always know where you are
- The two numbers that decide the hand (dealer 6, you 11) are the largest things on screen
- A thin red line drains across the screen as the timer runs
- DOUBLE / SPLIT / SURRENDER become one segmented control. A red dot marks the coach's pick
- Pairs well with the existing light theme in app_palette.dart
