Dealer's Table

Played the way a real table is played. The dealer talks to you in a subtitle line, totals are printed on the felt instead of in UI pills, and you act with casino hand signals: tap the felt to hit, wave your hand to stand.

WHAT MAKES IT FEEL LIKE A REAL TABLE

- Real signals: a tap on the felt hits, a sideways swipe stands. The big buttons teach the gesture
- The dealer speaks: "Six showing. Eleven to you." The coach becomes the dealer's own voice
- Almost no chrome on the felt. Numbers sit where a dealer would announce them
- Oak and leather rail, chips on the armrest, discard holder, shoe and tray
